We are hiring Web Developer - Online Team

Bitdefender is looking for a skillful and talented web developer for its Web Development team in Bucharest. The team is responsible for developing the web portal that supports Bitdefender's Business Partnership Programs. Your objective consists in implementing new features and improving the existing features on the website according to the client's requests. The main part of your work requires advanced back-end skills such as PHP programming and database design. If you are passionate about web technologies and web security, have good logical and analytical skills and you wish to be part of a professional and successful team, please let us know by applying to this job. This position is open in the Online Services Team.

Job Responsibilities:
- develops and maintains web applications;
- does database design and optimization;
- writes robust, clean and documented code;
- writes install and maintenance procedures and documents;

Requirements:
- previous experience in web development: minimum 2 years;
- PHP: advanced;
- SQL: medium;
- HTML: medium;
- CSS: medium;
- Javascript/AJAX/jquery: advanced;
- XML: beginner;
- Linux: beginner;

Pluses:

- apache/nginx configuration;
- MySQL/PostgreSQL configuration;
- SVN/Git usage;
- CakePHP knowledge

If you take up our offer, you will:
- Work on great technologies & products;
- Be a member of a great and highly knowledgeable technical team;
- Be part of a multinational company;
- Benefit from career development programs;
- Have access to leisure rooms (foosball, pool, Wii, darts);
- Enjoy a competitive salary, as well as medical and accident insurance.